

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

Friday Night Feb. 10th – MAIN CHURCH

6:30 p.m. Registration and book tables opens – Praise and Worship – Main Church

7:15 p.m. Session 1 – Broken into Two Parts:

Part 1 “Deliverance is a Good Word” – Neal Lozano- (Workbook pg. 7)

***short stretch break*****

Part 2 “Repentance and Faith: The First Key” – Neal Lozano-(Workbook pg. 20)

Part 1 will place deliverance in its proper context, the advancing kingdom of God. It is the Truth that exposes the tactics of the enemy and sets us free. Learn how our experience led to a model of deliverance that does not focus on the devil or stir up fear. Part 2 will contain brief remarks about repentance and faith, the first of the five key principles that will be addressed during the conference. The session will conclude with an opportunity to ask the Lord to show us our hearts and lead us to a deeper surrender to Him. (Unbound book Ch. 1 & 3)

Optional: Opportunity for short individual prayer of repentance and faith

9:15 p.m. Day 1 Conference Ends

Saturday Feb. 11th

9:00 a.m. MAIN CHURCH – Mass

PARISH HALL - Late Registration/ book table open/light breakfast

9:40 Welcome and Announcements-

9:45 a.m. Session 2 – PARISH HALL - “The Keys of Renunciation and Authority” – Neal Lozano – (Workbook pg. 50)

In session 3, we will define renunciation as a part of our Christian heritage and our ongoing conversion. We also explore the eight entry ways for the Enemy’s tactics in our life. The entryways include unconfessed sin, response to trauma, family sin, curses, involvement with the occult, rebellion/disobedience, lies we have believed, and sexual intercourse outside of marriage. Following instruction on how we can renounce our enemies in the name of Jesus, we will conclude by renouncing areas of bondage and deception that grip us. (Unbound book Ch. 2, 5 & 6)

10:50 a.m. - Break – Book Table Open

◆ If you would like individual ministry, please turn in your form at the registration table ◆

11:05 a.m. -“The Power of Forgiveness” – Janet Lozano – (Workbook pg. 64)

Most believers know the importance of forgiveness (Matt 6: 12-15 & Matt 18:32-35). This talk will address the question: Why, if we know the importance of forgiveness and we know Jesus who is the source of forgiveness, do we have such trouble releasing forgiveness?

We will examine fifteen obstacles that keep us from the freedom God has for us through forgiveness and we will present a simple way to help a friend release forgiveness. This session ends by inviting the Holy Spirit to bring the grace to forgive. (Unbound book Ch. 4)

12:00 p.m. – Optional: Opportunity for short prayer of forgiveness

12:30 p.m. Enjoy Lunch prepared by St. Timothy Men's Club – Book Table Open -

◆ Pick your "Request for Ministry Form" back up AFTER lunch ◆

1:30 p.m. Session 4 - "What to Expect in an Unbound Ministry session" – Janet Lozano – (Workbook pg. 82)

Through personal testimony, teaching and a short video presentation, Janet helps participants understand how they would be led through the Five Keys in an Unbound Ministry session. This session has a dual purpose: 1. If you seek prayer this weekend you will know what to expect. 2. You will learn how to help others. (Unbound book Ch. 13)
