Pick 1 from the Gospel list

Music Options are included on following pages.

Pick 1 from each: (a) entrance/gathering, (b) responsorial Psalm (c) preparation of the gifts, (d) communion, (e) recession/closing/postlude.

Note: While Funeral music may express "convictions and feelings" its subject must always be the paschal mystery and it must be related to the readings from Scripture. Rather than adopting popular secular songs which are inappropriate to a liturgical setting, we should seek out good liturgical music on a paschal theme. Option: secular music at Wake/Funeral Home. Order of Christian Funerals with Cremation Rite.

Eulogy: Eulogy may not be longer than 5 minutes (eulogy is not a requirement); must be emailed 24 hours prior to funeral to the Funeral Ministry for approval by the Priest. The Eulogy is not part of Mass. We suggest that the Eulogy be read at Wake, or it may be read before Mass or after final Blessings at the Mass. The Eulogy does not have to be read/presented by the family member or friend. A Eulogy is not a resume. It may be submitted to the Priest/Deacon to be used at his discretion to incorporate some points of interest into the homily.

Helpful Things To Google:

- Scriptures for Catholic funerals...scriptures/readings which are liturgically correct and appropriate for Christian funerals.
- usccb.org...US Conference of Catholic Bishops...another good source of scriptures/readings for Catholic funerals.

On the St. Timothy website – www.sainttims.org/funeral, there are helpful resources, such as what to do When A Death Occurs and information about Living Wills. Follow the link in the paragraph about Living Wills, click on Resources; click on Catholic Declaration on Life & Death.

On the date of the funeral, we can provide equipment for a slideshow on a flash drive / thumb drive only. Cannot guarantee any other form.
